Whereas Equinox Publishing Ltd holds the rights granted under this License

And Whereas the Licensee desires to use the rights and Equinox Publishing Ltd desires to grant the Licensee the license to use the rights for the Fee

It is agreed as Follows:

I. Key Definitions

In the License, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

I.1 Authorised Users

Current members of the staff of the Licensee (whether on a permanent, temporary, contract or visiting basis) and individuals who are currently studying at the Licensee's institution, who are permitted to access the Secure Network from within the premises of the Licensee and from such other places where Authorised Users work or study, including without limitation halls of residence and lodgings and homes of Authorised Users, and who have been issued by the Licensee with a password or other authentication.

I.2 Commercial use

Use for the purposes of monetary reward (whether by or for the Licensee or an Authorised User) by means of the sale, resale, loan, transfer, hire or other form of exploitation of the Licensed Materials. For the avoidance of doubt, neither recovery of direct costs by the Licensee from Authorised Users, nor use by the Licensee or by an Authorised User of the Licensed Material in the course of research funded by a commercial organisation, is deemed to constitute Commercial Use.

I.3 Fee

The fee agreed by the Licensee and the Publisher for access to the Licensed Material.

I.4 Library Premises

The physical premises of the Library or Libraries operated by the Licensee.

I.5 Licensed Material

The online resources of the Publisher to which the Licensee has a fully paid current subscription or has archival access to under the terms of this license following termination.

1.6 Archive Material

Following the termination of this agreement, except for termination caused by breach of terms, the Licensee retains permanent access to the archive material previously licensed.

1.7 Secure Network

A network (whether a standalone network or a virtual network within the Internet) which is only accessible to Authorised Users and Walk-in Users approved by the Licensee whose identity is authenticated at the time of login and periodically thereafter consistent with current best practice, and whose conduct is subject to regulation by the Licensee.

1.8 Subscription Period and Perpetual Access

That period nominally covered by the Licensed Material, regardless of the actual date of publication. Following the termination of a subscription, the Licensee may have permanent access to the subscribed content through the archives provided by the Publisher and/or through a third party authorized by the Publisher. This permanent access will not be extended if the Licensee commits any material breach of this Agreement which causes the termination of this agreement.

1.9 Walk-in Users

Persons who are not Authorized Users but who are permitted to access the Secure Network from computer terminals within the Library Premises. For the avoidance of doubt, the payment of a fee in order to be registered as a Walk-in User is deemed not to constitute Commercial Use under Clause 1.2 above.

2. Agreement

2.1 Equinox Publishing Ltd agrees to grant the Licensee the non-exclusive and non-transferable right to give Authorised and Walk-in Users access to the Licensed Material via a secure network for the purposes of research, teaching and private study, subject to the terms and conditions of this License.

This does not apply to libraries who have entered into agreements with other libraries, software developers/suppliers or as part of a consortia to automate and systematise the Interlibrary Loan process as a means of substituting for paid subscriptions or paid downloads of articles from the licensed work or works.

Licensee agrees to fulfil such requests in compliance with Section 108 of the United States Copyright Law (17 USC §108, "Limitations on exclusive rights: Reproduction by libraries and archives") and the Guidelines for the Proviso of Subsection 108(2g)(2) prepared by the National Commission on New Technological Uses of Copyrighted Works.

8 Package Terms

8.1 eCollections

Our annual eBook subject collections are sold as subscriptions beginning with the 2016 collections. Libraries sign a three-year agreement with an annual opt-out clause and cancellation payment of 10% of the value of the cancelled year/s. To help libraries budget, package prices for years two and three are based on the total price of all of the new titles included in the year's annual subject package minus the package discount or on the cost of the initial year's package price, whichever is less.

8.2 eJournals

An institution agrees to pay the annual package price for three consecutive years. Price will be held as quoted for three years with invoicing in September of each year. Any new title we start publishing within the three years of the subject package order will be added free for the remainder of the contract. Should the institution be compelled to cancel the contract before term, the institution agrees that it will pay back the difference between the discounted and full published price for all journals in the package (excluding those offered gratis by the publisher) for the number of years the institution had access to the package
